

I understand that large telephone companies such as BellSouth wishes the FCC to stop regulating Broadband internet service. As a consumer I am writing to ask you to continue to regulate Broadband. I believe it would lead to a hostile environment for smaller DSL providers and therefore myself a consumer.

Regards,

Mike Stevenson